The Lazaridis School of Business & Economics
Economist-in-Residence Speaker Series presents

Christopher Ragan

Associate Professor in the Department of Economics at McGill University

Chair of Canada's Ecofiscal Commission

NOTHING RHYMES WITH ECOFISCAL

Dr. Ragan will talk about the case for "ecofiscal" policies, how they work, and examples ranging from carbon pricing to road-congestion charges. He will also talk about why institutions like the Ecofiscal Commission may become increasingly valuable in a highly polarized political landscape.
